

Funding Agency	 Arab Gulf Programme for United Nations Development Organization
Title	Improving Access to Water for farmers, women and children in West Ramallah by protecting and rehabilitating their spring's water
Objectives	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• To increase agricultural productivity by rehabilitation of neglected agricultural lands.</li> <li>• To augment the quantity of available water for drinking and irrigation.</li> <li>• To provide employment opportunities for the residents in the villages of Beitilu, Jamalah, and Deir Ammar.</li> <li>• To develop and build capacity in the Beitilu, Jamalah, and Deir Ammar unified village council, through initiating a Spring Users Association in the village council.</li> <li>• To reduce unemployment in the respective villages.</li> <li>• To increase the number of women beneficiaries, throughout the course of the proposed project.</li> <li>• To raise awareness, especially among women and children, in water issues concerning the environment, agriculture and importance of conservation.</li> </ul>
Project Partners	Beittilou, Deir Ammar and Jammaleh villages

Project Outputs

Report:

- First Progress Report